

Celebration of Life: Honoring Homer E. Wright, Jr. September 20th • 11:00am • St. James Community Center

Homer Edward Wright Jr., the visionary and developer of St. James, among other communities, passed away on July 22, 2024, at the Lower Cape Fear LifeCare Brunswick Hospice Care Center. He was 99 years old. Homer would have turned 100 on the day of this celebration.

A celebration of Homer's life will be held on September 20th at 11:00am at the St. James Community Center. You are invited to hear stories from family and friends about this remarkable man, how he lived, his restless energy, and the unique combination of personal qualities which made developments like St. James flourish.

This event will be well-attended, and carpooling is encouraged.

The event will be live-streamed and recorded. Instructions for viewing will be announced.

Following the celebration, a reception will be held at the Reserve Club at St. James.
